

Bella's Desire

I have a desire.
It's to inhale your perfume.
Let me hear your breath.
You release the air.
It is so fresh and so clean.
It flows over me.
I am so engrossed.
I want to focus on you.
Let me take you in.
We will be as one
During the time we're alive.
The future is bright.
I have a desire.
I make your tenderness known.
You share my distress.
I have a desire.
I will share my bed with you.
We rest together.
You have set me free.
There is no more agony.
I am not restrained.
I cling to a hope.
We'll create the time to come.
We have succeeded!
Love is for always!
